"Australia loves Italy: Italo-Australian identity in a multicultural country"

by

Maria Rosaria De Toma & Marina Ricci

In September 2012 two adventurous teachers and twenty-two students set off for an epic journey to Australia. Come and listen to the teachers and the students speaking about their experiences and flick through the pages of their travel note-book .

You will be guided to the discovery of this far-off land , to its stunning landscapes and amazing wildlife ; you will be introduced to its warm and welcoming people and you will be moved by the stories of the Italians who left their homeland in search of a better life.

Find out how a school exchange can be educational as well as great fun.

Maria Rosaria De Toma teaches English at Liceo Classico “ Pietro Giannone” in Benevento. She has an extensive educational background and further post-graduate professional qualifications. She has a wide-ranging expertise in course planning and execution and in exam preparation for both Cambridge and Trinity certifications.

Marina Ricci teaches English at Liceo Classico “P.Giannone” in Benevento. She holds an Advanced Certificate in Education and Professional Development-ELT from the University of East Anglia, UK, as well as two post-graduate specializations from the University of Rome and of Salerno.
