

WHAT IS TESOL ITALY?

TESOL Italy (Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages) is a grass roots organization, run by teachers for teachers. It is a non-profit Italian organization founded in 1975 by Mary Finocchiaro and Renzo Titone along with other foreign language teaching experts and pioneers. It has approximately 400 members in Italy and abroad and is an affiliate of TESOL International Association, based in Virginia, USA, with over 12,000 members worldwide.

What is TESOL Italy's mission?

Its mission is to develop the expertise of those involved in teaching English to speakers of other languages and to foster professional growth and active participation in language teaching. This includes promoting community understanding of the role of language in a progressively changing environment while respecting individual language rights.

Who does TESOL Italy collaborate with?

TESOL Italy collaborates with people and organizations involved in English Language Teaching including:

- Italian Ministry of Education (MIUR)
- Public Affairs Section of the U.S. Embassy
- The British Council
- ANSAS
- Other Professional Language Associations:
ANILS, LEND, AISPI, ADILT, etc.
- The Fulbright Commission
- Italian universities
- Regional educational authorities

What kind of professional development activities does it offer?

- Language improvement courses
- Pre-service and in-service training
- Self-development opportunities
- Training of teacher trainers
- All-day seminars
- After-school workshops
- Annual National Convention
- Local Group Activities

Why should I become a member?

Besides being able to take part in all our professional development activities, members receive our online publications: The Newsletter (5 times a year) and Perspectives, our academic journal (twice a year). Members can also start or join a local group anywhere in Italy.

What exactly are local groups?

Local groups are made up of at least five TESOL Italy members. These groups organize and hold professional development activities in their areas. Existing groups are located in Agrigento, Benevento, Caserta, Cosenza, Formia, L'Aquila, Messina, Milano, Napoli, Palermo, Roma, Venezia.

What is the Annual National Convention?

This two-day convention hosts over 50 talks, workshops and poster sessions given by national and international experts in the field of ELT. The book and educational materials exhibition offers the latest in ELT materials and software, as well as information regarding study abroad programs. The convention offers a wonderful opportunity for professional development and networking. It's a must for all EFL teachers in Italy.

How can I become a member?

Call our office in Rome (06-4764-2432), write us an email (tesolitaly@gmail.com), or visit our website (www.tesolitaly.org) for the exact procedure.

TESOL Italy's membership dues for the year 2013 (January to December):

€ 25,00 - ordinary members;

€ 15,00 - university students under 30;

€ 15,00 - subscription to English Teaching Forum (4 yearly issues);

What is the Sirio di Giuliomaria Award?

This is an award that TESOL Italy confers once a year to a public school teacher for innovative classroom work. The teacher is awarded TESOL Italy membership and TESOL Italy National Convention admission for three years, including three year subscriptions to the Newsletter, Perspectives and English Teaching Forum (estimated value of €255).

By joining TESOL Italy you have access to a network of other ESL/EFL educators who share your same concerns and interests.