You are cordially invited to the workshop:

“Cooperative Learning in the EFL/CLIL Classroom”

led by Stefania Lamberti and Marta Milani

hosted by the Centro Linguistico di Ateneo

The purpose of the workshop is to familiarize participants with the theories and methods of cooperative learning as applied to a broad range of subjects and levels of education and then to give participants the opportunity to reflect upon cooperative learning and brainstorm potential applications to their specific contexts of instruction. The workshop will be of interest to English teachers and CLIL teachers working in all contexts, including primary, secondary, tertiary and life-long education, as well as private language schools and community programs. The presentation will be in Italian, but group work will be conducted in Italian, English and/or German.

Saturday - November 29, 2014
