“From our Cultural History to the Future”

Creative Writing Competition Workshop

with

Maria Grazia Maglione
Maria Antonietta Ortenzi

M.G. Maglione is a teacher of English language and culture at Liceo Scientifico ‘Teresa Gullace Talotta’ in Rome, a former training supervisor at SSIS Lazio, a TFA teacher trainer at the University of Rome, ‘Tor Vergata’. She has taken part in the Action Research Project and in several multimedia projects. She is a TESOL Italy Second Vice-President.

M.A. Ortenzi is the coordinator of the local group in Rome and a TESOL Italy Executive Committee member. She was a teacher at Liceo Scientifico ‘Primo Levi’ in Rome, where she was responsible for language certifications and she was also involved in the Action Research Project.

The Creative Writing Competition aims to:

- promote cultural diversity
- encourage creativity and self-expression
- develop autonomy and presentation skills
- develop CLIL connections

The workshop will provide resources and ideas to develop in the classroom to help students become aware of European history, our cultural heritage and future challenges.

Tuesday 12th December 2017

14:30-18:00
