Plenary Speaker Maria Ellison (Assistant Professor of didactics, University of Porto) CLIL: Implementation and Challenges across Educational Levels

Maria Ellison is an Assistant Professor of didactics at the Faculty of Arts and Humanities, University of Porto (FLUP). She holds a Ph.D in didactics of languages from FLUP. Her doctoral research focused on CLIL as a Catalyst for Developing Reflective Practice in Foreign Language Teacher Education. She teaches about CLIL within doctoral and pre-service Masters degree programmes in teaching foreign languages and in-service teacher development courses. She has experience of coordinating and monitoring CLIL projects in primary, secondary and higher education in Portugal. She is the coordinator of the recently established Working CLIL network in Portugal through the Centre for English, Translation and Anglo-Portuguese Studies (CETAPS) which connects communities of researchers and teachers of CLIL across the country.

The plenary will be followed by interactive workshops and talks aimed at primary, secondary and higher level.
